DETAILED ACTION

Drawings

1. The drawings are objected to under 37 CFR 1.83(a). The drawings must show every feature of the invention specified in the claims. Therefore, the exposed unsheathed tendon confined to the wedge hole must be shown or the feature(s) canceled from the claim(s). No new matter should be entered.

A proposed drawing correction or corrected drawings are required in reply to the Office action to avoid abandonment of the application. The objection to the drawings will not be held in abeyance.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

2. The following is a quotation of the first paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall contain a written description of the invention, and of the manner and process of making and using it, in such full, clear, concise, and exact terms as to enable any person skilled in the art to which it pertains, or with which it is most nearly connected, to make and use the same and shall set forth the best mode contemplated by the inventor of carrying out his invention.

3. Claims 1 and 36 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, first paragraph, as containing subject matter which was not described in the specification in such a way as to enable one skilled in the art to which it pertains, or with which it is most nearly connected, to make and/or use the invention. . It is unclear how the single cut circumferentially around the sheathing is made inside the wedge hole when it appears to be no room to make the cut according to the drawing.
4. Claims 5-6 and 10-11 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, first paragraph, as containing subject matter which was not described in the specification in such a way as to enable one skilled in the art to which it pertains, or with which it is most nearly connected, to make and/or use the invention. It is unclear how the Applicant applied the adaptor and o-rings to the bearing side of the anchor once the concrete has been poured as set forth in claim 1.

5. The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

6. Claims 12 and 25 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

7. Regarding claims 12 and 25 the claims are rejected to as being indefinite since the drawings clearly show the exposed unsheathed tendon extending outside of the wedge hole.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

8. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

9. Claim 51 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Sorkin Patent 5,749,185.

Sorkin teaches all the limitations of the above claim including an intermediate anchor (14), tendon (18), o-ring (66) who inside diameter is larger than outside diameter of the tendon (18) for sliding the o-ring over the tendon (column 6, lines 55-60).

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

10. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

11. Claims 1-50 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Sorkin Patent Number 5,749,185 in view of Reigstad et al. Patent Number 4,799,307.

As best understood by the Examiner Sorkin teaches all the limitations of the above claims except the specific placement of the bushings, o-rings, and the adaptor. Sorkin teaches that a hydraulic jack is used to tension the tendon and wedges, threaded nuts, or the like, are used to capture the cable at the anchor plate and as the jack is removed to prevent its relaxation (column 2, lines 15-20). Sorkin further teaches placing a tendon into an anchor, tensioning the tendon, placing a wedge in the wedge hole (column 4, lines 1-14) and the use of tape for sealing any exposed portion of the tendon (column 2, lines 57-60), and O-rings (66) are used to seal the connections. Reigstad teaches a bushing (126), adaptor (136), and O-ring (130). It would have been obvious for one skilled in the art to provide an adaptor, cap and O-ring to the anchor member to provide a sealing assembly as taught by Reigstad since it is held to be within the skill of a worker in the art to pick and choose from the well known hardware available as a matter of design choice.
